GOSPEL MESSAGE

The Ninevites heard the preaching of Jonah and repented of their evil ways, thus experiencing the Lord's compassion. Do we repent when we hear the preaching of Jesus? Do we invest our lives in the world rather than in God's kingdom?

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples - Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning nets and boats father and fellow workers. To what is Jesus calling me - at this moment in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

CALLING ALL GRANDPARENTS
St. Ignatius has begun a new ministry for grandparents, The Catholic Grandparents Association. This is an international group that works creatively in supporting grandparents in passing on their Catholic Faith.
There are ministry groups in over 60 countries and several parishes in Eastern Pennsylvania. The group provides resources, online Zoom talks, prayer and support as we negotiate our vocation and role in our families' faith journeys.
Our meetings are the second Saturday of the month after our 8:00 AM Mass.
We gather and share hospitality and fellowship, prayer, discussion and share our values and experiences. We look forward to learning how to better pass on our faith and enrich the lives of our children and grandchildren. We welcome all grandparents to join us as we begin a new year and together joyfully foster our faith to multigenerational families.
Please join us on Saturday, February 10, after the 8:00 AM Mass!

GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

Today's readings call us to be decisive in our faith. Simon, Andrew, James, and John demonstrate this decision for us in their response to Christ's calling, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." In both instances, the men immediately abandoned what was before them and followed Christ.

Imagine if Simon and Andrew looked at their Savior and said, "Thanks for the offer, but we will finish up fishing and meet you later." That is no way a disciple should respond to Christ's call. Yet, that is how we often respond to Jesus' offer to us, "Come after me." We can easily fall into the misconception that we have plenty of time to live active discipleship. But as faithful stewards of our time, we must change our ways and immediately follow Christ more intentionally, because Christ is calling us to act now. These men became members of Jesus' 12 apostles. They surrendered their entire lives to follow Christ. We, too, are called to surrender our lives to the Lord so that He may work through us. We might think, "God isn't calling me." But indeed, He is. Just as He called four ordinary fishermen, He is calling each one of us. Renewing and reevaluating what God might be asking of us throughout our lives is a key component of our stewardship journey. As we settle into this New Year, let us ponder the ways we can renew our commitment to God. Let us ask ourselves: what are we casting our nets for? And are we willing to leave it behind for something much greater? And if not now, when?

Thank you for your continued support and donations!

THIS WEEK LET US PRAY...

For public servants and elected officials,
 may God grant them the humility, wisdom,
 and courage to defend all human life.
