GOSPEL MESSAGE

If we have died with Christ, we believe we shall also live with Him. He invites us to take up our cross and follow Him, and to respond to those who are in need, as did the woman who extended hospitality to Elisha the prophet. Blessed is she who walked in the countenance of the Lord.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

ANGELORUM, one of the choirs of the Diocese of Allentown, and based out of the Cathedral, is a talented group of women whose blend is angelic and filled with love of God.

Their style is a perfect combination of traditional and contemporary, all of it directed toward Our Lord.

Their music can be heard on Spotify, Amazon music, and many other streaming sites. We would love for you to visit our webpage at Angelorum (angelorumvoices.com), subscribe to our Youtube channel, and follow us on Instagram and Facebook.

These women represent parishes throughout our Diocese.

Their CD will be released sometime in July.

Follow on social media to get the date!

Please contact Beverly McDevitt by email at bevmcdevitt1@gmail.com with any questions or interests in booking this choir at your parish.

Please take note of the businesses advertising on the last pages of our bulletins. We thank them for their support and ask you to consider patronizing them.

GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

Today's readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life.

Our First Reading, from 2 Kings, shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. It recounts the story of a woman who showed loving hospitality to a visitor, inviting him to dinner with her family and arranging a room for him in their home so that he would have a comfortable place to stay during his travels through her town. She reached out to the man in a simple and practical manner to make him feel welcome and was rewarded in an extraordinary way.

In our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. What does that mean for us here and now? St. Paul tells us very clearly: "You must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Our Lord proclaims this same instruction in a rather shocking way in our Gospel passage from Matthew: "Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." But how do we lose our life? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward."

The simple brilliance of stewardship living - only our infinitely creative and compassionate God could conceive it!

Thank you for your continued support and donations!
