"Were not our hearts burning..."

ANGELORUM,

one of the choirs of the Diocese of Allentown, and based out of the Cathedral, is a talented group of women whose blend is angelic and filled with love of God.

Their style is a perfect combination of traditional and contemporary, all of it directed toward Our Lord.

Their music can be heard on Spotify, Amazon music, and many other streaming sites. We would love for you to visit our webpage at Angelorum (angelorumvoices.com), subscribe to our Youtube channel, and follow us on Instagram and Facebook.

These women represent parishes throughout our Diocese.

Their CD will be released sometime in July.
Follow on social media to get the date!

Please contact Beverly McDevitt by email at bevmcdevitt1@gmail.com with any questions or interests in booking this choir at your parish.

Please take note of the businesses advertising on the last pages of our bulletins. We thank them for their support and ask you to consider patronizing them.

GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

The theme of humility is central to our readings today. God Himself is a humble God, so if we wish to follow Him as Christian stewards, we too, must be humble. In fact, humility is key to the stewardship way of life, and to a peaceful and fulfilling life.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus Himself speaks to the Father about the privileged role that humble souls play in God's plan of salvation. "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones."

What does it mean to be a "little one"? It means that we acknowledge we don't have it all figured out, but that we are very much in need of a savior. It means we recognize that all we are and all we have been given is a gift from God. It means we embrace the stewardship way of life. It is not easy, but deep peace and consolation come with this way of life. Jesus offers these warm and encouraging words to entice us to embrace them. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

Let us resolve to follow in the footsteps of our Savior, embracing the humble path of stewardship. It is the path that leads to peace here and now, and ultimately leads us to heaven.

Thank you for your continued support and donations!
