COOKS WITH COLLARS

Thank you to all who participated in "Cooks With Collars" at St. Ignatius as we realized over $7,000!

While we didn't bring home any of the Diocesan trophies - we are all winners as our parish benefited from your great generosity! Hopefully you were entertained by your priests' presentation and, at the very least, you have a new recipe to heighten your taste buds! We're looking forward to next year's version!
May God bless you all!

GOSPEL MESSAGE

Abraham offers the ultimate sacrifice of thanksgiving, the gift of his very son. This sacrifice prefigures the sacrifice of Jesus who died for us all. In His transfiguration, Jesus discloses a suffering messiahship.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Abraham was prepared to sacrifice his only, Isaac. St. Paul reminds us that God Himself "did not spare His own Son." Are my gifts to the Lord - of my resources, of my time, of myself - also sacrificial?

GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

Today's readings are a powerful testimony to God's profound love for each one of us. It is a reminder for us, as Christian stewards, to surrender all that we have to the Gracious Giver.

The First Reading from Genesis is the infamous story of God putting Abraham to the test. God commands Abraham to offer his son, Isaac, to the Lord as a sacrifice. Abraham obeys the Lord. Yet, a messenger of the Lord cries out at the last moment to stop him. Because of Abraham's faithfulness and surrender to the Lord, he is blessed abundantly.

We can only imagine how Abraham felt, offering the life of his son, not understanding why, but blindly obeying. Yet, Abraham's response of total surrender to God's plan is a testament to trust in God's deep love for us. As Christian stewards, we are called to surrender all to the Lord - our time, our talents, and even our material possessions. We should willingly give God our entire lives with the confidence that He will take care of us.

St. Paul echoes this message so beautifully in our Second Reading. He says, "He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?" God loves us so much that He gave us His only Son who suffered, died, and rose for us. He has given us His very best. Can we not entrust our entire lives to Him knowing He will continue to pour out His love on us?

As we continue our journey through Lent, let us reflect on God's profound love for us. .

Thank you for your continued support and donations!

THIS WEEK LET US PRAY...

May every human person, from conception to natural death, be recognized as precious and beloved in the eyes of the Lord.
