GOSPEL MESSAGE

Thomas believed because he saw the risen Jesus. Although we have never seen Him, we believe in Him. We give thanks to the Lord for this gift of faith, especially when we gather for the breaking of the bread and the prayers.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Jesus meets the need of each disciple. To the fearful in the upper room, He speaks words of peace. To doubting Thomas, He provides the tangible proof of His resurrection. What do I need to become His disciple? What do I have to share that might meet someone else's need?

Celebrate

Divine Mercy Sunday

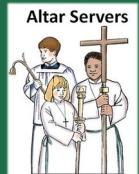

Sunday, April 16 | St. Ignatius Church

Divine Mercy Chaplet
2:30 PM

Pope John Paul II believed that our world is particularly in need of God's mercy. A special devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy was revealed in 1931 to an uneducated Polish nun, Faustina Kowalska. On the first Divine Mercy Sunday in 2000 the humble nun was canonized a saint. Pope John Paul II in his homily on Divine Mercy Sunday in 2001 said: "Indeed the message she brought is the appropriate and incisive answer that God wanted to offer to the questions and expectations of human beings in our time, marked by terrible tragedies. Jesus said to Sr. Faustina one day: "Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to My mercy" (Diary, 300). Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity at the dawn of the third millennium."

St. Ignatius E-DAY Report

Several teams comprising of 27 people went out Saturday, April 1st to surrounding areas to invite families and individuals to our Church and Holy Week Liturgies and distribute schedules. 282 households were visited, a significant increase from previous E-Day events (64 households visited last year).

The teams provided a letter from Fr. Tom with the Holy Week schedule, approximately 292 Miraculous Medals, 296 Rosaries, their associated prayer cards and "How to Pray the Rosary" pamphlets.

We visited parishioners and non-parishioners alike. We hope and pray that "seeds were planted" that day.

A blessing worth noting:

Thunder/wind/rain overnight and early that morning, even during the training for the participants.

By the time we went out, the wind/rain was down to a drizzle and completely stopped during our walk/household visitations.

By the time we finished the event, the sun was out!

To God be Glory and Praise, Now and forever, Amen!

GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

The Christian steward approaches life with an "Easter vision" rooted in gratitude for the salvation our Lord has won for us through His death and Resurrection. Today's readings on this Divine Mercy Sunday teach us how this approach plays out in daily life and remind us that we can have complete trust in the mercy of God to lead us, step by step, to heaven.

Certainly, it is challenging to live for heaven when the things of the earth - job stress, family crises, health troubles, political strife - loom large on the horizon. We can find ourselves becoming cynical like the Apostle, Thomas, in our Gospel passage today - until he had an encounter with the merciful Savior. We all recall the famous line from Thomas, who was not present with the other Apostles during Jesus' first appearance after the Resurrection. Beaten down by the events of the last several days, Thomas refuses to believe that the others had indeed "seen the Lord" as they claimed.

Thomas stubbornly declares he would not believe their story about the Lord unless he placed his finger into the nail marks and his hand into His side. Yet, these doubts did not repel our Lord. They actually drew Him to Thomas in an extraordinary way. Our merciful Lord saw that beneath the hubris in Thomas' statement were pain and disappointment. Our Lord is mercy itself. And so He did not condemn Thomas, but calmed his doubts and fears, and allowed Thomas to actually touch those Sacred Wounds. What amazing grace. When we are tempted to give in to doubts about our faith for whatever reason, all we need to do is seek the Lord - in prayer, in the sacraments, through the encouragement of our Christian communities - and just as He did for Thomas, our Lord will mercifully restore our Easter vision and fill us with His joy and peace.

Thank you for your continued support and donations!

THIS WEEK LET US PRAY...

For those who have participated in an abortion and feel they have committed an unforgiveable sin, may they come to know the Lord's limitless mercy, and turn to Him for forgiveness and healing.
